UPDATE BULLETIN

- a) This Operating Manual is an essential tool for controlling your business. It is very important therefore that changes, up-dates and amendments - issued as reprints - are actioned immediately on receipt.
- b) Each reprint replaces the previous page or section that it supersedes.
- c) Replaced pages should always be destroyed so that there is never any confusion over what is, or is not, currently in operation and to ensure they do not fall into the hands of unauthorised personnel.
- d) Whenever amendments to the contents of the manual are issued, the Manual Update Bulletin Sheet following this page should be annotated accordingly.
- e) All persons using the Manual should be aware of any changes as they are received.
- f) When updates are sent they will be accompanied by an Update Sheet which you should sign, date and return to your Central Office in acknowledgement.
